

Call For Intense Prayer

November 2, 2020

The Lord bless you my dear ones, give you the strength and the courage to pray and support our nation in this critical hour.

Jesus began, "My people, this is the time to apply yourselves to intense prayer. These situations of civil unrest and rioting that could arise in your country because of the evil ones, these situations can be mitigated, or stopped, by your prayers. Pray also for the safety of your president and his staff.-- --

Target your prayers. When you hear of trouble or violence in a state pray over that city and state. It is a good practice to have a map before you and lay hands on the area being affected.-- -- This brings you into deeper focus with your prayers for the area.

Depending on the length and intensity of your prayers, you can make a major difference in what is going on. Your president is going to be voted into office again, but the instances of voter fraud are everywhere and those who do not believe in the right to freedoms of this country will try to denounce this election. There will be civil unrest, but I am telling you now, your vigilance and prayers will make all the difference in intensity. They will move to the right to cause trouble, but I will be waiting for them. They will move to the left, but again I will be waiting.-- -- What they want to go up will come down. And what they want to come down will go up. And all of this, because you prayed. So, believe in prayer, it is the weapon of choice, not guns and clubs and violence. You defeat the purpose of this democracy when you take the law into your own hands, it is prayer that will defeat every attempt to overthrow your government.

Pray against voter fraud, pray against anarchy and civil unrest and violence, pray for your president's safety, and pray for the eyes of Americans to be opened to the true condition of their government and all the good your president has done.

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS!!! Be faithful in prayer. The Divine Mercy Chaplet also is very powerful along with entreating My Mother and the Saints in Heaven. They are at your disposal, and know by the Holy Spirit that you are enlisting their support. They are there to help those still on Earth, you will someday see this in Heaven when you are enlisted to pray.

Would it be too much to ask of you My People to pray back to back Chaplets, Rosaries and intercession in tongues? I am asking you to do what you can in prayer during these critical hours, and any fast offering you make will increase the power of your prayers. And vigils are very powerful. You will make the difference. Pray Psalms 51 and 91 as well over your nation. Much mercy will be dispensed during these hours of dedicated prayer. I am with you and for you America, you have chosen to come alive, to change and take responsibility, shall I not therefore come to your aid. Indeed, I hear the cries of My people and I will be faithful to answer them.

Can Men Forgive Sins

November 3, 2020

May the truth of God's word resonate in your heart's dear ones. Cast aside your prejudices and what man has taught and embrace the depth of Scripture.

I need to make an apology, because I have quoted Mike From Around The World a few times, and last night I heard one of his messages where he said, "No man can forgive sins." I just want to refer to John 20:23 where the King James Scriptures states, "Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose so ever sins ye retain, they are retained."

I want to make it clear to you family that the Lord Jesus Christ in red letters, affirmed to His apostles that they were given authority from on high, from Christ Himself, to forgive men's sins. However, we know that God will not be mocked and if a soul is not truly repentant, I personally do not believe that their sins can be totally forgiven because of their insincerity.

None the less, in other matters, the apostles were appointed, to forgive sins even as it is written in John 20:19 On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." 20 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld." That's just plain Scripture dear ones, and in all things, we must adhere to Scripture, especially when they are the words of Christ Himself.

I would like to refer you to the seventh episode of The Chosen series by Dallas Jenkins, they have an app for it and it's on YouTube, and particularly the scene where the Pharisee, was thinking no man can forgive sins, because Jesus was about to heal the paralytic, and here is the story, "2 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home. 2 They gathered in such large numbers that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them. 3 Some men came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them. 4 Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus by digging through it and then lowered the mat the man was lying on. 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, 'Son, your sins are forgiven.' 6 Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, 7 'Why does this fellow talk like that? He's blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?' 8 Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, 'Why are you thinking these things? 9 Which is easier: to say to this paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take your mat and walk'? 10 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.'" So he said to the man, 11 "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home." 12 He got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all. This scene is portrayed word for word by Dallas, in the Chosen series, and it really catches the atmosphere around the religious spirit of the pharisee that was at the window criticizing Him.

Now I want to share with you that the only reason I have listened to Mike From Around the World is because he has very accurate information on the sciences that affect our planet, especially geology, astronomy and the magnetosphere, and as well as understanding the movements and repercussions of the solar system moving around which is so unstable right now. Other than that, I cannot endorse his teachings, though I really appreciate his very direct approach to getting us all to walk what we talk and be authentic Christians. The world is going to need us to be authentic when these things come upon it. He has also taught on the stability of a true believer even when the world around him is falling apart. Dear ones, we must be very serious about our prayers for the world and our elected officials, and we must have a deeply personal relationship with Jesus, and obedience to Him. He is our anchor on the stormy seas of life, as well as the Holy Spirit being the captain of our little vessel.

Mike also made a statement about Mary, "Mary can't save you." And he is correct, Our Lady was not the one who died on the cross, although she is the one who most closely suffered watching her Divine Son give His life's blood in agony to atone for our sins. But again, I must point to several Scriptures where the Lord outlines her role in the church.

The Wedding at Cana, she was presented to the world as the intercessor who petitioned her son to do a miracle which for Him was out of season. He was not ready to do that. In other words, what Jesus would not do on His own, for He certainly knew they were low on wine, He did because the person who asked Him had a privileged relationship with Him. So, this is the story, 1 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, 2 and Jesus and His disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine ran out, Jesus' mother said to Him, "They have no more wine." 4 "Woman, why does this concern us?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you." 6 Now six stone water jars had been set there for the Jewish rites of purification. Each could hold from twenty to thirty gallons 7 and Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water." So, they filled them to the brim. 8 "Now draw some out," He said, "and take it to the master of the banquet." They did so, and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not know where it was from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10 and said, "Everyone serves the fine wine first, and then the cheap wine after the guests are drunk. But you have saved the fine wine until now!" 11 Jesus performed this, the first of His signs, at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him. That's the second chapter of John. By the way, this incident is portrayed superbly in The Chosen series by Dallas Jenkins. It's simply wonderful. I watched it over and over again, really authentic. It gives you a great look into the Jewish tradition and what life was like back in those days and certainly what a Jewish wedding was like.

Moving on, Mary knew her son very well, she needed no verbal confirmation from Him, yet in her heart, she knew He would perform this miracle. That's why she told the servants to do whatever they were told. By the way, in her apparitions and messages around the world, she is still telling us to do what we are told to do by Jesus. She knows what pleases Him and I believe she is also very much the Mother of the Bride. In any case, it is clear from this incident in Scripture, that Mary had a privileged relationship with her Son, as an intercessor for those in need.

Guys, the Body of Christ, outside the liturgical churches, has gone out of its way to discredit her and turn people away from her intercession. And even in this incident, it is notable, she was grief stricken that the wine had run out because she knew how embarrassing it would be for the couple, and her merciful heart reached out to her Son because she knew that He too was merciful. The cut and dried solution to this would be to allow them to suffer this degradation, but Mary intervenes and entreats her Son to do what He was not willing to do on His own initiative. This is so typical of Our Lady. She is tender, gentle, merciful, and yet she never compromises with sin. She weeps for the sinner hoping against hope that Jesus will give them another chance. There is a wide gap between Evangelical cut and dried relationships and those who have a relationship with Mary, they tend to be so much more forgiving, merciful and gentle. This was something I recognized early on when I converted from the Evangelical church.

Here is another incident that confirms her great dignity among men, in Luke Chapter 1. It begins, In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town in Judah, and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord."

And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant. For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed, for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name."

Moving on to the end of John's book, he is the only disciple who stood at the foot of the cross, and because of that it could also be said that he represented all the disciples, and the church. The narrative begins, "When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" 27 Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home." That's from John 19. I believe this was symbolic of Mary's roll not only to John but to the disciples as well, and eventually the entire church. And traditionally, Luke's gospel is accredited to Mary. He got his information from her, because he was not a part of the disciples at that time. You may argue that point, but I want to remind you of what happened the night before when Jesus washed the apostle's feet. He did that to show them what their relationship should be with one another, and it was an example of how He uses seemingly unimportant actions and words, to symbolize and mirror a greater truth.

The Lord has promised that those who are faithful on this earth shall receive greater rewards in Heaven in Matthew 25:23. His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master!' Are these not the words we all long to hear in that fateful moment when we stand before our Lord and our works are judged? Now if Scripture declares Mary the mother of Jesus as being blessed by all generations, it stands to reason that she is also blessed right now in this generation and this implies she did well with what was entrusted to her, therefore I believe she will be given greater duties and appointments in Heaven.

What I am trying to say dear heart dwellers, is of course Mary has not the ability to save anyone since only the blood of Jesus, and His suffering on the cross, opened the gates of Heaven and paid the price for our sins. He is our redemption. However, she does have an expanded authority given to her from her Son, because she was faithful on earth, that significantly works in the favor of those who are petitioning her for a miracle out of season, in other words, a miracle that no one deserves, but that is given into her hands to dispense because of her faithfulness and great honor in Heaven.

Therefore, she has the privilege of drawing on the great storehouse of graces her Son has accumulated for His angels and servants in Heaven to distribute according to their office and function in the established order of His Kingdom.

Putting it another way. In a healthy family environment, if a son wants to ask a very big favor from his father, and he knows his father is not well disposed to give it, who will he go to? His mother of course. She has a relationship with the Father, that is highly favored, and if she asks, she is more likely to have the request granted, than the son.

All of us dear ones, all of us, will be given more to do in Heaven, based on our faithfulness on earth. All of us will wear crowns and cast them at the feet of God, so there is nothing that implies that Mary cannot be a queen in Heaven. Where we get confused is that Satan has also a personage, he calls the queen of Heaven, who is nothing more than a filthy demon with that title. So, let us be sure when addressing Our Lady, Queen of Heaven, it is Mary herself that we are addressing, as our intercessor in our petitions.

And do not be fooled by the empty argument that there is only one mediator between God and man, Christ Jesus. To say that in the context of excluding intercessors makes absolutely no sense since we are told to pray without ceasing, to imitate Christ who in Heaven who prays without ceasing, and if we have Him living in our hearts here, how much more so in Heaven, so how can we refrain from praying in Heaven? The Holy Spirit gives us insight into what is going on.

Find me one Scripture passage that states no one in Heaven can pray for someone on earth. Bring me that Scripture and you will have an argument against the great cloud cheering us on, that says, those in the cloud can watch, can worry, can cheer us on, but they cannot pray??? How absurd and senseless is that? Can you imagine seeing your son's life from Heaven and not praying as he walks near to the precipice of sin??? Of course, you would pray.

So finally, my dear ones, these ministers that insist Mary is insignificant, and the saints cannot pray from Heaven, and no man can forgive sins, they are speaking only what they've been taught, not what is in Scripture. The Body of Christ will never come together until they learn and examine these passages of Scripture, both sides of the body has something to offer. It's a shame that it is divided, it should not be mutually exclusive. Either you are an Evangelical or an Early church Christian, we should be one body taking advantage of both lungs. Both sides of the church, the body will never come together until they learn and examine these passages of scripture. Lay down their personal opinions, independent of the Word of God, and like the Jews need to repent for rejecting their Messiah, they need to repent for rejecting the order of the Kingdom of Heaven that God has established, especially the great cloud of witnesses praying from Heaven, and the set apart and appointed privilege of Our Lady in Heaven, the soul whose womb God's only begotten Son was entrusted to by Our Heavenly Father.

You see, in Heaven, the Holy Spirit flows through everyone, so a saint is easily aware of a petition to them to pray for a situation in the same way that on earth we become aware of a need to pray for someone, by the Holy Spirit. And if they insist that Jesus is our only mediator, why do we have intercessors and intercessory prayer groups standing in the gap??

Don't be fooled. Someday soon, the veil will come down and the Body of Christ will be united in Biblical Truth, and the opinions of men will be shown as being nothing more than a puff of smoke, and all men will agree on truth. And for those of you who are in liturgical churches and turn your nose up at the Evangelicals, shame on you. They have great gifts to offer, they have gone far with what they have. We need to be brothers and sisters united under Christ. One body, one head, one heart, one mind, one gospel. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Press Into Prayer With Me

November 4, 2020

Thank You, Jesus, for giving us a heads-up on what is going on and how to handle it. My Dear Family, I want to share with you the reading the Lord gave me from Scripture yesterday. I do believe it will help you.

In Second Samuel beginning around chapter 15, there is the story of King David's son, Absalom, and he was beginning a rebellion against his father. He deceived the people and turned their hearts to himself and against his father. Then he led a rebellion by popular opinion because he had courted the people to win their hearts behind his father's back. And so, David again had to run for his life, but by divine providence, during the battle between David and Absalom's troupes, Absalom's hair got caught in the low hanging branches of a tree, which his mule ran under and he could not free himself. And there he met his fate as he was killed by David's men.

In summary, it looked very bad for David, who was a great warrior, who seemed to have lost the popular vote, he had to abandon the palace and go into hiding, so many were in Absalom's army. However, God stepped in and brought an end to him and David's kingdom was united and he returned to his palace and built it up. No other nation was able to bring David down. And so, in peace his kingdom went on to his son, Solomon.

Dear family, even when it looks bad, God is the turnaround specialist. And He will have his way with America. But I am asking you to devote this day to prayer and fasting, and in fact continue to pray and fast until this battle is won. I know many of you must work and take care of your children, so I am asking you to deny yourself the foods you love, and get by on lesser foods, until this is resolved. You could give up sodas and desserts, and savory foods, and if this continues to go on as an issue, let down on your fasting on Saturdays, for a day of rest and on Sundays, the Lord's Day, and then pick it up again during the week.

But I would like you to consider for a moment before you do go into prayer, really think about this guys, what are the consequences of this battle if we lost. If we are not vigilant to pray and fast, this nation could be destroyed overnight. Defunding of the military and the police, persecution like never before of Christians, censorship and lies meant to turn the world against us, and the end of freedom in this nation.-- --

Just imagine what it would be like without police to call as people were trying to break into your house. Imagine what it would be like to see foreign armies, especially the Chinese, rolling into towns and taking people from their homes to be locked into camps. Imagine the serious consequences for your families and children. And after you have thought about all these things guys, go into prayer with conviction and passion, that evildoers and cheats be exposed for what they are and let the legitimate election continue for the American people, to elect their president.

And I asked the Lord if He had anything to add.

Jesus began, "Your prayers are working, keep praying. This is My word to you, defend your rights, yes, but do it in the context of prayer and fasting, your prayers are working, keep praying."

Those of you who have slacked off in prayer, repent and get back on your knees until this situation is decided. There is nothing more powerful than prayer, nothing. It is by prayer that I defeated armies far greater than the number of men on My side. Remember Gideon's 300 and get to prayer. Make this day count for your nation and the kingdom of God which I long to bring on this earth.-- --

Nothing in your life will matter if you lose this battle, so put your all into this My People and I will show you a great victory. Do not let Me down, press into prayer. There is nothing in your life right now more important than prayer. I am at your right hand, praying with you and together we will obtain the victory." Amen!

The Passion of Donald Trump

November 7, 2020

Take heart my dear Heart Dwellers, the Lord laughs at those who think they can outsmart Him. Upon waking this morning, I went to check the time and there on my phone was a declaration by Associated Press, that stated Joe Biden was our new president. It sounded official enough but in fact has no legal substance, since this is far from being endorsed by the legal authorities of this nation, not the press, or as Hannity on Fox News calls them, the Media Mob. By the way he is an excellent source revealing only the tip of the iceberg of widespread voter fraud, even showing clips taken at the polls, to substantiate the reports of widespread tampering with the ballots.-- --

Then I pulled a Rhema card and the reading was, "Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for Him. Do not fret when men succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes." That's Psalm 37, verse 7. So, I celebrated the Lord's supper for President Trump and just after that I heard the Lord's voice in my heart speaking to him.

Jesus began, "My Son, these are the things I told you about before you came into office. I told you that you would resemble Me in My Passion and now in this hour, it is coming to pass. I have protected you and continue to protect you, for all of Hell has pitted itself against you and this nation. All your life I have been preparing you for this time, for it is your destiny. Now you hang on the cross with Me as all the world abandons you, throwing slander, liable and heaping all manner of outright lies and filth upon you. You have defended My role for this nation, for it is One Nation Under God and for this you share in the dignity of wearing the Crown of Scorns, I too must wear, even at this hour.

But be of good cheer, be strengthened, continue on in courage for your God defends you and will bring to pass the victory I have promised you.-- --

Do you know that you and I are a majority? Do you know that I cannot be divided and am here with you, living in your heart and at your right hand? Yes, Father, Son and Holy Spirit is beside you and, in your heart, and if I am for you, who can be against you? We are a majority and nothing can conquer what I have ordained for you.-- --

I only ask that you continue to believe and that your staff and all Christians accompany you in your passion and hold up your arms as you raise your staff over this nation. I have appointed you priest and prophet to deliver My people into the promised land.

I call upon all Christians to unite behind you now and lift up your arms, made holy by My will and contend for this nation and its proper heritage. America you are yet destined for great things. America, your leader will rise again and this nation will excel in holiness and wisdom, influencing the whole world to return to truth.

This is My last effort to bring all men unto Me before My Father unleashes the wrath that will cleanse your world of evil doers, I am gathering My chicks under My wings through you as a mother goose gathers her goslings. We will triumph and this nation will have its day.-- --

Courage My son, though all forsake you, I will never forsake you. Take this word to your heart even as My Mother treasured My words to her, deep within her heart, and they gave her strength to endure My bloody passion, for she knew what I had promised her would soon come to pass."

And I just want to make a note here that in Celtic spirituality, Ireland, Scotland, the wild goose is a symbol for the Holy Spirit. So, the Lord is going beyond the stereo typical vision of America as being the eagle and He is calling her a goose with goslings or that is a reflection of the substance of how Donald Trump is being led through the Holy Spirit of God.

So, let us stand beside our President, comforting him in his passion, even comforting our Lord as He suffers with him. And let us support him with prayer and fasting, and declaring our faith in God to bring about His plan for this nation. Amen.

Stollen Ballots Recovered by Prayer

November 9, 2020

My precious heart dwellers, we have the task set before us now. Pray in complete faith for all the ballots, the legal ballots, to be discovered and counted. Here is a vision that came through Intercessors of America.

They thought it legitimate enough to spread it around and I bear witness to it in my spirit that this is from the Lord and it is something that we need to pray and put forward. So here you go.

Dear Intercessor,

I feel led to write to you to encourage you for the days ahead. I have a sense that we are about to enter tumultuous times. I write to you to warn you and encourage you to continue to intercede, despite the circumstances. You likely feel weary from the battle; I personally hit the wall this week, but we must pray for supernatural strength.

I am not sure all of you may be able to relate to this, but being athletic all my life (even still compete in CrossFit competitions in my mid-fifties) I have learned many lessons. It is in the final reps, when you are completely exhausted and have nothing left, where you see your gains. In a way, all of the reps before, all the work, all the sweat before the final set of exercises, were only to prepare you for the gains you receive in these final moments.

I sense this is where we are at as a community of intercessors. All of the prayer, all of the intercession, all of the strength and energy is bringing us to the point where we will see the "gains."

In the midst of this foreboding sense, I received a text from a leader in the United States Church, a major leader in the prayer ministry movement, and probably a name you would recognize. The message contained a prophetic dream sent to him.

And here it is:

"I dreamed the morning of October 30 that you (the prayer ministry leader) were leading a team on a rafting trip. The inflatable boat had a ballot box in it and we were headed to deliver it to the President. You informed us just around the bend was severe white water, but we could navigate it. We rounded the bend and the white water was more violent than any I have ever seen. You asked me to secure the ballot box so that it was not lost overboard. You instructed the others to tie themselves in the boat, as we must complete this course together. Deep intercession began to come out of our innermost parts, we prayed to the Angel Armies to get us through these dire straits. As a deep level of tongues began to come forth, we saw upon the riverbank, which was high like a canyon, the cloud of witnesses cheering us on. The Angel Armies surrounded and steadied the raft. We rounded the third bend and the water became much faster but as smooth as glass. We could see the President's helicopter on the bank of the river. He sent military brilliance, congressional brilliance, and constitutional brilliance to retrieve the ballot box. President Trump never exited the helicopter but stood in the door and saluted you and us. He then pointed up into the sky and folded his hands in prayer. He smiled and gave a thumbs up. He then flew away. We remained and began to pray deeply...."

This prophetic picture warns us that the rough waters are coming, maybe rougher than we have yet seen. There will be twists and turns, and then as we turn the final bend, the momentum of the victory will speed up and smooth out. Tie yourself into the boat, we will get through this.

So, head to the map, spend time clicking and praying for the ballot processing centers. So head to the map, spend time clicking and praying for the ballot process centers, and the integrity of the vote. This is our assignment for the coming weeks." And that was the end of his post.

I personally, Heart Dwellers, have never doubted that Donald Trump won this election, and that it's just a matter of time before the truth comes out. So, I am asking you to stand with me and pray for the ballots to be counted and justice to correct this media push to make Biden a president, which he is not and will never be. PRAY PRAY PRAY!

And I hope that rumor about a sting on the Democratic party by watermarking the true ballots, will come to pass. I hope it's true. And I suspect it is, Donald Trump is nobody's fool. Please pray also for the complete downfall of the socialist propaganda machine in this nation that is all the FAKE news stations including FOX and social media. Pray for a cleansing. Pray for open eyes. People who have been voting for Biden have no idea what they are leading this country into. They have been fooled by a media blitz and by personality, because they don't like Trump, they vote for Biden that is the most ridiculous thing I have ever heard. We need to pray for the man who supports an end to abortion and cutting babies out of their mother's womb at nine months. We need to pray for what is right, not for personality. That's what got this country into trouble with Barack Obama, who is indeed the Antichrist, but he is being prevented from coming into power by our prayers and vigilance. Pray that we can keep the good and truthful and clear out all the agents of nasty, swamp governments, full of snakes and crocodiles and venomous creatures.

Lord, have you a last word.

Jesus replied immediately, "Beloved Believers, pray, pray, pray. I move on your prayers. Send in a Tsunami of prayers to Heaven and we will have a tsunami victory. Be strengthened now in your hearing ears by My Grace to push through until the victory is won!!!!" Amen. Amen.

Thank you, precious Heart Dwellers, for praying. Thank you for praying, you are going to turn this nation around, thank you so much for praying. And also thank you for your donations to our ministry as we continue to reach out, not only to the world through our channel and our website Heartdwellers.org, but also to the local population here who is in a terrible bondage to the darkness and we pray for them to be released from it and for revival to break out here because the Lord has told us that is His heart.

Thank you again so much for your prayers and support.

I Look For Comfort Here

November 10, 2020

Beloved Heart dwellers, let this be a week of thanksgiving, to repair the damages done by any ingratitude, complaining and also for an ungrateful world. It absolutely breaks my heart to see how they have been tearing President Trump apart. He has done so much good. Let us make up for that with our thanksgiving to the Lord for this man, and that the Lord is going to turn this election around. Just as a note on that, by the way, they are finding major discrepancies in voting situations along with videos that show what is going on, and not only that but Pennsylvania was declared up for grabs last night. Biden did not win Pennsylvania, which means that if they calculated electoral votes, he does not have enough to claim the presidency. But all of this is going to be reversed when the evidence is exposed of all the cheating that's going on, so press in guys, and ask the Lord to give you the gift of travailing prayer to back our President up.

So, I opened my little private Rhema book to, "Do not grumble over any event, shortage or inconvenience or disaster, because you know these sacrifices are arranged by Me to serve My ends in the economy of salvation, "Joyfully cooperate with Me!" Interesting I also pulled another card that said, "This was done by Me." I related both of those to the election results that the media has been putting out. The Lord is allowing the media to just bury themselves in lies, and when the real truth comes out about CNN and the rest of the guys, when the real truth comes out it is going to undo them. People are not going to want to have anything to do with them. So, the Lord is allowing all of this for a reason. This is part of the deep state, the messy, yucky swamp. It's the part that needs to be expose to the public so they can make a decision, and it's all coming to the surface. All the muck is coming to the surface, and the water is being drained away, and boy what it is revealing is disgusting. Far beyond what anyone would even dream has been going on in this nation. It is simply disgusting. So, our posture this week has to be one of prayer and joyful expectation. The Lord is going to turn this around.

Dear ones, this sums up what the Lord is calling us to this week. Let it be a week of thanksgiving, a week of counting our blessings and sharing that with one another. Isn't it funny how we always seem to speak up when things are deficient? And I am talking to myself right now. We either judge ourselves or someone else, or complain. All complaining is a sin against God, for He has allowed everything for our sanctification.-- --

I have been guilty of fault finding and complaining the last few weeks and I was so convicted when Ezekiel went into a terribly painful experience of the Lord's passion. I asked him why he was suffering this way, expecting it to be about the election fraud and what He was suffering from was our ingratitude for all the gifts He has given us, and for fault finding with each other. I repent of that, surely there is a fine line between guiding a soul and complaining.

In the early church, the desert fathers discouraged finding fault with one another. The young man who one year ago, left the world the first day of college and came to us because he wanted to learn about the Lord, has grown leaps and bounds, and now has many gifts of the spirit in operation. What a blessing he has become to the community. The Lord gave him a dream about me, it was short and to the point. I was correcting him about something and the Lord spoke up and said, "Be as patient with him as I am with you." Oh, that shut me down!!! If I were THAT patient, I would never correct anyone! The Lord has forgiven me so many times, making it clear that I should just get up and try again, how can I possibly lift my head? So sometimes it's really difficult because mistakes are made that costs the community time or resources, and I need to speak up but I need to do it in charity, and I also need at times to forget speaking up and just cover for the person. And pray for me that God will give me wisdom on what to do when. I am still learning. -- --

You see dear family, I am much worse than any of you, and still, He continues to work with me.-- -- Therefore, I must show the same patience and compassion to others that He shows to me.-- --

The winter is here with all its challenges, and tempers can flare when three women live in a tiny space. I have to tell you; this is a proving ground for holiness. When someone makes the resolution to come to the mountain and the Lord approves it with us, they are stepping into the refining fires of God's Sacred Heart. Yes, the flames of love consume the dross that floats to the surface during refining, and they are being prepared like fine gold to be poured into the Holy Mold He has chosen for them from the beginning of the world. Even though we all recognize this is part of the process, it is still challenging to walk in love and patience.

Lord, please speak your heart to us. Jesus began, "Beloved family of My Heart, it is no accident that this place is called Sacred Heart Refuge, in the midst of the Sangre de Cristo, Blood of Christ, mountains of New Mexico.-- --

Truly it is a refuge for My heart, because I have sanctified souls here who are willing to comfort My weary heart. This is a place where I look for comfort. For that reason, I am working closely with you to rid yourself of complaining and judging. Do you understand? I need a place where I can rest My weary head and find solace and comfort and not even one disturbing word.

But if you are contending with one another, back biting, judging and snapping I must turn away and find someone else to comfort Me. Please do not treat each other this way that comes from the world. You no longer belong to the world. You hurt Me terribly when you find fault with one another. It is an acrid smell like garbage burning at the dump, and I can find no rest in such a place.

I am asking you to please make a safe space in your hearts for Me. A place of peace and brotherly love. I understand your human natures and that you are frail and impatient. I understand very well. And I do not condemn you for your fault so long as you keep a careful watch over yourself and refuse to take those thoughts into your minds and hearts. In fact, I rejoice when I see you deflect those fiery darts intended to start a trash fire in your hearts.

I did not call you here because you were perfect. I called you here because you love Me and want to love Me more, in short, you want to live the life of one who is united with Me. So please take this to heart, you are not expected to be perfect. My love will purify your hearts and make you perfect.

It is good for you all to know that demons of miscommunication under a major demon of division, will do a great deal to provoke you if you are not very, very careful. What is said from one person's mouth to another's, is often twisted as it enters your hearing ears. And this is done over and over again to confuse, stimulate frustration, and find fault with one another."

Oh Lord, I can't believe you just said that, because it just happened between one of the souls and I.-- --

"Clare, I want you to be meek and humble even when others contradict you and won't listen. I will speak to their hearts. There are some souls who have layers of fences, layers of de-fences to protect their self-esteem. Being right is important to insecure souls. As I love and instruct these in the refining process, these de-fences will come down. No one here has a right, to be right, all of you though, must be right with each other and right with Me. Where brotherly love fails, the enemy has shot a dart into someone's mind.

My specially chosen souls, if you could see the unseen realm even as Rick Joyner did, you would realize you are living on a battle field. So many things that are done deliberately, calculatingly, to you and against you come from this unseen realm. It would be good if you recognized that any hint of strife or contention comes from this realm.

It is hard for Me to rest in a heart that is angry and contentious, but I love each one of you so much that I work with you to bring you into peace within yourself and with one another. Be on guard and never underestimate the power of evil to discourage and divide. And the component to this is never underestimate your own weaknesses and the tendency to pride and self-defense."

Yes, Lord I can feel both those things most acutely right now. Even to the point of wanting to find a hole to crawl into.

Jesus continued, "Don't allow this to take you down Beloved, know that you are greatly hated by the enemy and this was an assault. Let it go, forgive and go on. Some recognize you as big and strong, they do not see the vulnerable little girl inside. Take comfort in Me and forgive. Care for one another dear ones, care for one another, and do not nourish a grudge, rather forgive and pray for one another. Be encouraged."

I Long To See My Body as One

November 16, 2020

My precious heart dwellers, my heart continues to be torn because the Lord's Body is so fractured, so dysfunctional into hundreds of different denominations, all claiming to know and live by the Bible alone and have the true faith, while all the others are missing something they have. One loves instruments in services, even as the Psalms talk about praising God in the assembly with instruments, others denounce the use of instruments, one faction believes in the Rapture, another does not. Another faction believes in confessing sins to a minister, as it is written in John when Jesus specifically gave the apostles the anointing to bind and loose and He breathed on them. Others deny that there was anything special about that anointing and God only forgives sins. But we are to confess our sins one to another. One believes we should only use grape juice for communion, never wine. One believes in prophecy, another does not and says that all ended with Christ. One believes in the baptism of the Holy Spirit and others do not, they condemn tongues as from the devil? But ALL claim to be living by the Word of God!!

Is it any wonder that the Body of Christ is so torn, dysfunctional and divided that we cannot rise up as One Body with One Head and defeat the devil? Do you know that the Satanists get along better bonding to come against Christians than we do coming against them? Do you know that they get together just to curse us and cause more division in the Body?

Here is my problem, all of us confess the Bible but none of us can agree on what it says. We secretly look down upon others who interpret Scripture differently than we have been taught. And that is exactly the problem, we have not been taught by God but by men with differing opinions. If we had been taught by God, we would all agree. But we have not, we have been swayed by preachers who have differing doctrines. May I say, in Heaven there are no disagreements on doctrine? In Heaven the truth is pure, simple and understood by all, even without asking. Why? Because in Heaven the Holy Spirit permeates all souls and all thoughts and He is never wrong or divided, for He is God.

Every disagreement and division I have encountered, came not because Scripture was explicitly one way or another, no, it came from the lack of knowledge of all the Scriptures and how they work together. Men have defined doctrines along one thread that seems right to them, while denouncing others that are clearly in the Bible, but have a thread that differs from their cultural upbringing and church family.

What happens then? They ignore the other Scriptures which could illuminate them on what the whole Bible says. They concentrate on their accepted doctrines and ignore important Threads they are not familiar with, or doctrines that came from churches that were abusing their power. May I say, there is not one church, evangelical, protestant, Catholic, Orthodox that has NOT abused their power at one time or another. So do we throw the baby out with the bathwater or do we compare doctrines according to what Scripture says or do we breakaway with our own specific interpretations of Scripture?

Let's get real, are we afraid to explore the depths and totality of Scripture because we might discover some life changing truth? Are we afraid of swimming against the current of our friends, our relatives and the culture around us? Are we afraid of losing our promising jobs if we believe in something different than our boss? Are we afraid to think for ourselves, in choir, for ourselves into God's Word because we might be in serious error or go to Hell? So, do you think it's safer to follow what someone else tells you than for you to search it out yourself with the Holy Spirit? Does fear of social status prevent us from going deeper? If any of the above apply to you, you are living in idolatry. If anything in your life is more important than the truth, that thing is an idol that has you chained.

Do you want the truth? Or do you want popularity? Do you want to know the fullness of the faith or do you want to be socially acceptable? Are you afraid to see a different point of view that aligns with Scripture but is foreign to you? Who has control of your conscience? Is it fear of man or fear of God? Is it truth or security?

In this country right now we are undergoing a revolution because people, for the last 70 years and more, have accepted the status quo that is presented to them by the popular news channels. Now they are finding out that the people who work for those channels are operatives from foreign governments who want to steal our freedom and bring us under the control of Godless men. They are Satanic operatives who get their orders from fallen angels and Satan himself. Satan came to kill, steal and destroy and that is what they have been setting this country up for all the way back to the first world war and beyond.

Why have people believed these liars? Because they were too lazy and sound asleep in their comforts to go deeper and discern the true motives behind their doctrines. As a result, these agents of Satan have gotten into the educational system and prepared generations to embrace evil. Many generations have been formed by their intellectuals who worked in education, in churches and universities to pervert the truth with subtle arguments against it.

And I have to say the popular faiths have also been deceived because they would not go deeper into Scripture and put truth before any other concern. The fabric of society is very strong and controlling. Do you remember back to your high school days, how you would be laughed at for wearing the wrong color socks? For wearing the wrong brand of sneakers? For not having the "in" hair style and watch? Society is brutally controlling, ostracizing anyone who dares to be different. Survival is tied into being accepted by peers. Conforming to the norm is not a choice, it's an absolute necessity to survive and be thought well of and this applies to the religion community as well.

Heart Dwellers, we are called to dwell in the heart of Jesus and love one another, so there are many Christians on this channel who have come from a different background with different views and doctrine. All I do on this channel is share with you the Lord's heart. And He has crossed boundaries in His messages to me because He is longing to unite the Body of Christ. This is a move of God; Repair the Breach is what we have written on our Bishop's Shield. The breach in what people refuse to even consider that might be truth that conflicts with what their favorite pastor has taught them. Is this not Idolatry? Are we not making a man into God when we refuse to search the Scriptures and test these doctrines for truth that may conflict with the status quo? Are we not afraid of being ostracized if we discover truths that our pastor and congregation do not agree with?

God's Heart right now is to heal divisions. That is why He is bringing us into direct contact with united forces, much bigger than us, such as abortion and communism. These are united forces of evil that have come against God's holy way of life. And if we remain divided, we will be conquered. That is why you saw the demonstration in Washington D. C. this past Saturday, with all kinds of differing Christian denominations, coming together as one to fight the evil of election fraud.

Why am I bringing this up? Because I see how God wants to bring powerful souls together to work united as one to go fishing with Him. But the nets are torn, and the alliances He wants to form are hostile to one another. One of the biggest factions in Christian doctrine is over the simple issue of the Body of Christ praying from Heaven for its members on earth. No one has been able to find one Scripture that says you cannot pray from Heaven for those on Earth. Yet everyone seems to be agreed that the Holy Spirit permeates all of Heaven and Earth, and that He is capable of letting you know when to pray for your son or daughter, when danger threatens at any time of the day or night, but He is not capable of informing relatives in Heaven??? People argue that there is only one mediator between us and God, and yet they call their friends to mediate for them in prayer. "Pray for me." is mediation. You are asking a human to step in alongside you and another to beseech God to move on your behalf.

Where in Scripture is that condemned??? In fact, all throughout Scripture we are taught to pray always. Where in Scripture does it say that you cannot pray from Heaven? Do you really think the great cloud that Paul talks about, is watching us make our mistakes without interceding on our behalf, to stop us from walking over a cliff?

There are pastors that know better but wouldn't be caught dead teaching that because mainline Christianity would leave their church and they would be poor overnight. They are use to the nice house, cars, planes, offices and employees and will not risk losing their congregation the one that they have brought up by mentioning something that sounds like it might have its source in that evil Roman Catholic church. There is however one exception that I am aware of. His name is Jesse Duplantis. He was physically taken to heaven for several hours before a Sunday service where he was going to preach. When he came back, the shekinah glory was so thick on him that people were speechless when he walked to the podium. He proceeded to tell about how God sent angels to transport his body to Heaven, and assigned King David to take him on a tour. When he was getting back into the transport vehicle to go to earth, King David said to him, "I'm praying for you Jesse."

Yes, this man had the courage to tell us something that most pastors would never disclose. Maybe there is something very pure and special about Jesse, maybe that's why God took him to Heaven physically. Could it be that God meant more to Jesse than his multimillionaire congregation and all the fame he had accrued in his decades in ministry? Doubtless, he considered what such a statement could do to his credibility, but he said it anyway because it was true.

Well that's a beginning of bringing unity to the Body of Christ, a brave man speaking out. Jesse is a rebel and a man totally in love with God. So, he said the unthinkable, people in Heaven can pray for those on earth. WOW! People, we have got to stop dodging the truth in the Scriptures. We have got to love God more than status, more than money, more than even our marriage partner. After all, Jesus Himself said that he that loves these things more than Him is not worthy of Him. And it is these preachers and pastors that are afraid of losing their incomes and respectability, who refuse to look at the truth of Scripture. As a result, we have millions of intercessors in Heaven that are not being enlisted in our fight against Satan on this earth.

But I believe they are praying as they cheer us on and are not letting our ignorance stop them from praying for us, after all, their agenda is the same as God's agenda, save as many souls as possible.

Why am I so hot about this??? Because the mainstream churches have invincible ignorance and prejudice against certain doctrines that are explicit in the Bible and as a result, they are not living the fullness of the Gospels. They don't have all the power because they are weak, watered down and worldly.

Let me give you three very short examples, and you who have been on our channel for a long time you have heard these before. You see I was a fundamentalist mainstream Christian who was very dissatisfied with my walk, it just didn't measure up to the Gospels and I knew it in my heart that something was very wrong and then I was influenced by the musician John Michael Talbot, who was singing about all the things I knew I was missing in mainstream Christianity. The humility and the simplicity of Christ.

So I went deeper. I dared to be a fool by exploring Scriptures that my former pastors had surgically avoided, as if they never existed in the Bible. Here's a case in point. We are all familiar with the media censorship, right? Yes, it's a big thing these days, the general public is waking up to the fact that companies like Google, have their own agenda on things, and it is not Christ friendly. I just went on line to copy the Scriptures for this message and I typed in, this is My Body. What came up??? Not what I was looking for, just three Scriptures that didn't carry the depth of the meaning that Jesus gave when He explained this to the pharisees. I got, Luke 22; Matthew 26; Mark 14 and 1 Corinthians 11. None of these were what I knew I was looking for the very meat of this teaching that Christ gave us. I forgot which chapter it was, but I knew it was somewhere in John and that is what I was looking for. I googled it again, several times and John never came up until I typed in "My flesh is real food."

This is the MOST profound and perfect explanation of the Body and Blood of Christ, for Jesus states this seven times, this is My Flesh, this is My Body. It is truly food and it is truly drink. Seven times He said this, that is outrageous? Where in Scripture does Jesus state anything seven times in a row? It must have been very important to Him to do this. And look what happened, instead of receiving this truth from Him, they rejected it because it was an affront to the religious leaders, blood was considered unclean. Now in the mainline evangelical churches, they present communion as a custom in remembrance of Him, which is also written, but clearly, when they throw the remaining wafers out on the grass for the birds, they are not taking John 6 literally. In fact, the common explanation given is that those who really believe it is truly the Body and Blood, are engaging in alchemy and sorcery. Now that's one example.

So I was listening to Mike from around the world one night and he said something to the affect that only God can forgive sins. This is the common answer I hear from evangelicals, when they attack the liturgical churches that believe in confession to a priest. It is also how the pharisees attacked Jesus when he forgave the sins of the paralytic. Yet in John 20 beginning at verse 19, the Lord clearly gives special authority to the apostles, they were the only ones in the room, "Peace be with you," He said. "As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld." That's right there in Scripture.

The third example is when Moses and Elijah appeared to speak with Jesus in the seventeenth chapter of Matthew. Many times, when I try to explain the relationship of the great cloud of witness's people reply "You shall not consult the spirits of the dead." Yet Jesus spoke with Moses and Elijah as with familiar friends, which clearly sets a precedence for us on earth that it is possible to speak with those in Heaven. Obviously, God grants permission for the soul to visit another who is still on earth, and the Lord demonstrated this.

So, you see, right off the bat, here are three knee jerk reactions, coming from man's interpretation of Scriptures, and cutting off true knowledge of what the Scriptures say. And this is why we are a divided and partially effective Church. Every church has serious corruption, and why would Satan invade a church and distort their faith if that faith was not threatening to them. We cannot afford to throw the baby out with the bathwater. Rather we must test the spirits and compare the doctrines of men with what Jesus said out of His own mouth and what is written in the Scriptures.

Please think about these things consider what you've been taught by men in the past, and even those things you later found out were not true. Consider this before you throw stones at this ministry and accuse me of having a familiar spirit. Satan has counterfeited with familiar spirits, just like he does with every legitimate thing, he turns it into his own perverted agenda to destroy mankind and the earth. So, people react to that and they lump legitimate situations in with Satan, rather than discriminating and discerning, which is hard work, where the truth lies.

Consider that the Lord has given us precedence for things that men reject out of hand. Why? Because we need to understand the graces associated with those gifts, like the cleansing from the absolution of our sins, like the intercession of the angels and saints, and like the close relationship we can have with the cloud of witnesses, and the tremendous strength we are given in receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus, which by the way was a turning point in my Christian walk. I went from worldly to forgetful of the world almost overnight from the strength of this sacrament, which makes us one with Christ as His Bride. We become united with Him through receiving His Body and Blood.

I'm sorry Lord, I know I just went on and on, is there something You wanted to say?

Jesus replied, "You have covered the greatest pain in My Heart. I long with all My Heart, to see My Body restored. To see the arms and legs, the hands and feet, the heart and lungs, all the parts of My Body brought back and repaired and functioning as One. I long for this with all My Heart and I am hoping that what has been shaken up in the world will cause everyone to reconsider the lies against My Scriptures and how men have prevented My children from the fullness of the faith. You shepherds that have hindered My People from truth, I am addressing you. You have been lied too. You have been taught error. You are teaching error and turning out lukewarm souls. My heart for you, the cry of My heart for you who are sincere is "Go deeper." And for you who are not sincere, I am coming soon and I will set My House in order, even as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth on that day for what you have done to My Church. I say to you, "Repent." For now, is the time of grace and the illumination of all consciences as I uncover the corruption in My Church. My mercy has triumphed over judgment, but only for a very short while. Therefore, repent, you who have led my sheep astray and have endorsed sin and every kind of abomination. My mercy calls to you, for your time is short.

For those of you who are unsure of the doctrine's men have taught you, I have sent My Holy Spirit to lead you into all truth. But you must divorce yourself from the world and its ways before you will be able to recognize the voice of My Spirit. If you are sincere and willing to be made willing to discover the truth, My Spirit will prevail in your life and you shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free. I have never stopped loving you, even when you have pushed My hand away, time and time again. I still love you and long for your return before it is too late.

Put up Six Months of Food and Supplies

November 17, 2020

Beloved Heart Dwellers, the Lord has asked us to suggest to you to put up six months of food and necessities. I believe He is requesting this because it may be a rocky turnover when the truth comes out and the electoral college announces a second term for President Trump. So, please don't get carried away with the holidays or Covid, be sure to keep up your intercession and supply food and necessities ahead of time.-- --

Please do not starve yourself to death by fasting, choose a reasonable fast such as abstaining from foods that aren't good for you anyway, such as sweets and sodas. Fast as you can and do not deprive yourselves of sleep. Be sure to get plenty of sleep and food. If you deprive yourself too far so that you are getting sick or weak, that is a sign that you need to back off and lead a little bit more of a normal life.

So, I am asking you all to provide for yourselves and others as best you can now. As far as storage goes, we have heard that metal trash cans with lids bungeed down are the most secure containers against critters. And also, bay leaves in flours and grains protect them from bugs. I understand that roots also keep well if you pad them with straw.

Have necessary medications and over the counter meds that you use, on hand as well, in case things are not available for an extended period of time. By the way, if any of you suffer from plantar fasciitis mine went away when I took vitamin B6, which my health care professional told me about, and I passed that on to two different people that had it and theirs went away as well. And by the way, if any of you suffer from plantar fasciitis mine went away when I took vitamin B6, which my health care professional told me about, it went away in three days and every person I've told about it who had that problem has been cured with the B6, it's amazing.

Anyway, please also, keep on hand, soap, toilet paper, gasoline, candles and other necessities. Dried fruit hydrates really, really well and is a refreshing replacement when fresh fruit is not available. And don't forget pet food and kitty litter if you have cats.-- --

These are just some precautions the Lord is recommending for you. As in all things we have to trust Him and leaving all else in the Lord's hands. If you are living in His will and believe in His promises it is not unlike Him to extend your food supply when you seem to be running out. After all the Scriptures talk about the multiplication of loaves. The same for gasoline and other necessities. And a solar electric system is also a very good idea for backing your electricity up in case things should go down.

Most of all be praying, praying that justice will be done with this vote, that it will be honest and that people will learn and come to know how corrupt the media has been and that they have been feeding them lies for so many years, since he became President. They loved him before he became President, after that they can't say anything good about him. And nine tenths of it is slander and liable and untrue. We are looking for alternate sources for information now and I can give you a couple things that we've found that we know are favoring conservative news. Judicial Watch is very helpful, Tom Fitton is the President of Judicial Watch but he puts out twitters. The Epic Times is very, very good. Truth and Tradition, fact based, unbiased accurate news. Newsmax, Robert David Steele, Project Veritas and is wonderful and they get a lot of information about scandals and so on and they actually take people to court, and of course, President Trump paying attention to what he twitters and what he puts up for the nation to hear. Sean Hannity on Fox and Tucker Carlson also, and another organization called The Blaze and Mollie Hemingway on the media and so that's about it for now.

And I can share with you that the DefCon Warning System is a good place to find out what's going on around the world for where wars are and battles are and that kind of thing. It measures the likely hood of certain events.

Also, Rsoe Edis that's excellent, they have tsunami information, tsunami maps, earthquake maps, disaster maps, even accidents are chronicled from all parts of the earth, big accidents or big events, forest fires, everything. So, they are an excellent source and they are in Eastern Europe, again it's called Rsoe Edis, two words. These are places where you will get conservative news that is true.

I want to thank you dear ones for your prayers, they are really working, they are really helping us, and thank you so much for your donations. We have a beautiful community of 12 people, one of them being in Taos and the rest up here and that's pretty much our limit, except several are going to be leaving on a mission trip soon. So, anyway, it's a beautiful sweet, sweet community we all know each other really well. And we pray for one another and cry on each other's shoulders and pray the Divine Mercy three times a day together and it's a beautiful community. God has truly blessed us, and we are praying for our enemies, the local satanists, praying that God will bring the truth to them and they will feel His love. I think a lot of people who have turned to satanism have never known real love and they've had a rough start in life. And His love is amazing and it heals everything, so we are praying for them as well.

Thank you again for being a part of this ministry, we care very much for you. The Lord bless you.

Brother Leo's Testimony The Call of The Beloved

November 21, 2020

Hello Heart Dwellers Family, I want to share a testimonial from our youngest member and, who was supposed to start college last fall and instead, came here to learn about God. He was 19 at the time, and has made amazing progress.

He has since then left the world behind interiorly and taking on a new habit and a new name as Brother Leo. Here he shares his testimony.

Brother Leo, "The Call of the Beloved", October 2020

May the Grace of Jesus Christ be with all who hear this story.

This tale you will hear consists of my life up until my vocation. Bear in mind before reading this that I am no Saint, although I desire to be one with all my heart. Yet I write this for the Glory of God, and with the hope of edifying my dear Christian brothers and sisters. I mean this with all humility when I say I am the most wretched of all souls, but God, in His Mercy, seems to write best with broken pencil.

My call from Jesus began in the late summer of 2019. I had just graduated from high school, and it was soon the start of my college lifestyle, or so I thought. I was trying to follow Jesus as closely as I could and walk the journey of "earning a living" for myself, and winning the approval of my family and Church friends. Although I was excited, my heart still wasn't satisfied, as I thought of all the new burdens that came with that lifestyle: books, endless homework and starting all over with making new friends, guilt of not being able to live up to others' expectations. Soon, a week before school, Jesus led me to the testimony of a dear sister who left all her possessions, family and friends, to pursue a life of intimate union with God. She even quoted a Scripture where Jesus says, in the Gospel of Luke, "unless a man renounces all his possessions, he cannot be My disciple". This convicted me so badly, and I wanted to know more. As I listened to the rest of her testimony, I was excited, and also brought to shame. I began praying earnestly, asking God to let me renounce my life in order to be His disciple, not knowing that He would truly answer my prayer.

I constantly listened to her testimony, and each time, more desire increased in me to live this life. It was finally the afternoon of my first day of school, when Jesus answered my prayer.

I had just finished all of my classes, and was walking around the campus. A thought came to my mind to check my email. I saw a letter from Mother Clare, founder of Heart Dwellers. I had asked her a few months ago, before school, if I could come to the mountain where she was forming a prayer community. But I hadn't heard from her until now. As I read it, she revealed to me that it was God's will that I should come to the mountain and be a part of this wonderful prayer community.

I couldn't believe it. Her email was truly an answer to prayer. I called her immediately to talk more about this. Excitement overwhelmed me. However, I didn't know what to do. I cried as fear of rejection from my family and friends overwhelmed me. However, she comforted me with the fact that this was my decision. She said I could either fatten the pockets of some huge executive, or I could come work for Jesus and help gather souls into the Kingdom of Heaven. I then wiped away my tears and immediately told her, "I choose Jesus". Before I knew it, that same day, I saw myself walking into a Greyhound bus station, to purchase tickets to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

I spent most of my journey wondering if this was the right decision. Fear and sadness pummeled me all the way as I thought to myself, "what in the world am I doing?" After three long and tortuous days, I finally arrived in

New Mexico. It was then that I finally got to meet Mother Clare, face to face, and drown her shoulder with my tears.

As I spent my time here, it was then that I started to see all of my sins rise to the surface. For some reason, I suffered from extreme, and I mean 'extreme' laziness, both physical and spiritual. I just couldn't overcome all my faults and mistakes. Within a few months I was tempted to return home. I realized I had not truly forsaken the world and my sins. And so, I struggled interiorly for long periods of time. Mother Clare was kind enough to let me return home, I had to see for myself that the world was no good. This was indeed proved when I returned home, I received cruel persecution from my church.

For example, I was condemned harshly for believing Mary could intercede for you with Jesus. I didn't realize it, but Jesus allowed me to receive a splinter from His Cross. I struggled interiorly with who I was and what God called me to do. Leaving college to live a life of poverty was not something the Pastor agreed with, in fact, he thought that college was God's will for me. One Sunday while at church, they stood me up in front of the altar and started asking me questions like, "Who is Mother Clare?", "What did you learn?", and they accused me of being deceived and demonically possessed. I was trying to tell the pastor's wife about the importance of the virtues of humility, charity, holy obedience, "No, that's what they tried to teach you", she said, and tried to get me to renounce everything I had learned on the mountain.

I needed strength and encouragement and so I sought out Mother Elisha, who is the religious sister whose testimony I had been listening to over and over. She told me to leave the church and that Jesus wanted me to sit at his feet and learn intimacy with him. For a few weeks I did this and stopped going to church. But, one Saturday, I decided to attend a meeting at church after persistent pleadings from one church elder. When I got there, the Pastor was really angry and we were in the back part of the church, when he grabbed me by the neck, threw me against the wall and slapped me. He told me, "Stop playing with God's anointing", and two elders took me into the Church's kitchen and told me to renounce all I had learned in New Mexico. I was made to stand in front of the church and repent in front of everyone. They accused me of having demons.

After I suffered enough, I decided to leave my former church, leaving behind the world for good and do what Jesus wanted me to do. I longed to return to the refuge, yet Mother Clare would not permit this until she was sure that I had my fill of the world and no longer wanted to stay in the world. I struggled to find a job, but did find one at Wal-Mart. I felt so lost, depressed, and couldn't go anywhere since I didn't have a car. I used some of my income to help a friend in need and his family, but it seems the he used the money for his own purpose and this caused me anguish. I felt like I was drawn further away from the Lord, as there were temptations of lust, flirtations with a girl, smoking, fitting in with others.

I kept texting Mother Clare to ask if I could come back. It wasn't until about five months had passed that I was finally invited to return to the mountain refuge. By then I was fully convinced that this was God's will and that I am to be His little "fool" on earth. Jesus then made it clear that I was to renounce the world fully and take up my vow of poverty. When I got home from work that day, I bought a plane ticket to leave a few days later. So, I packed all of my clothes and didn't tell anyone at Church of my plans. I told my grandmother that I was leaving. She was sad but realized I was old enough to make my own decisions. The day of my flight, I got up at 4 am, headed to the airport and left Louisiana. I had a layover in Dallas and then made it to Albuquerque, where I met up with John, who drove me to the refuge.

When I made it back to the refuge, I was clothed in a habit and God expressed His delight by allowing me to receive a wound on my forehead in the form of a Cross. I then experienced an unexplainable peace and happiness as I felt truly accepted by Almighty God.

A few months later my former pastor died of cancer, which grieved me greatly, yet I know Jesus took him home to be with Him in Heaven. I always thought about how he perceived my vocation in Heaven. I knew he was being taught the truth by God and was probably happy, yet I always had this fear of him. It wasn't until a few months after his death that I saw him in a dream. I saw myself standing in my former church and he was in front of me with two men standing behind me. He then asked if I desired to live my whole life for God. I replied, "Yes, with God's grace." The two men who were behind me then clothed me in a habit and as I looked at my former pastor, he then took a cord and wrapped it around my waist, saying, "Treasures are storing up for you." I did not know what he meant but as he said this, he also began talking about miracles and that I must "get out there and save souls for Jesus!" I was the only one in the building clothed in a habit. As people came with their questions and concerns to the pastor's wife, I woke up from the dream.

I didn't understand the dream at first, but as I talked it over with my superiors, I knew I had received a visitation from him in Spirit and he approved of God's call on my life. I felt at peace and was very happy, and Jesus confirmed that this is where he wants me.

That's all for now as this story is still being written to this present moment. However, I hope this edifies you, my dear brothers and sisters, and may you truly believe the Lord God Almighty will truly make your enemies be at peace with you, if you do His Will!

AMEN!

What a wonderful testimony as I pray it inspires and encourages many of the young Heart Dwellers to go against the status quo and follow Jesus with your whole heart. He has great things in store for you and it matters not your age, but your willingness. If he can use a 74-year-old women to build a community and worldwide ministry he can use you. If he can use a 19-year-old with no experience, fresh out of college than he can use you too. If you would respond to his call and leave everything to follow him!

Brother Leo has grown into a wonderful young man full of such gentleness, humility and diligence. He really struggled with laziness when he got here as he was not used to hard labor work. However, he is now one of the first to come help when someone is in need. He is also very diligent to lead the newest members in the community every day in the Lord's supper. When he first arrived, they began to call him the saint on the mountain. However, we have come to learn the Lord desires for us not to look to be praised by man, but rather receive all insults with humility and joy. So, to Brother Leo our wonderful, wretched dirt bag on the mountain.

God bless you guys until the next message.

The Choice

November 24, 2020

Hello Heart Dweller Family, Mother Clare asked me to share and record this message that was given to her by the Lord concerning a certain soul here in this community. She had invited a few of us up to her place for dinner as we discussed pertinent things that needed to be addressed in the community and updates about the Presidential election results. We were having a wonderful time of fellowship when the subject of women being priests came up in our conversation. One of the souls here in the community was getting slack from family friends pertaining to her being an ordained minister of the blessed sacrament as Mother Clare tried to bring clarification and understanding on that subject, scripturally. Another soul contested and contended with her which put a damper on the rest of the night.

That evening she discussed it with Father Ezekiel and went to the Lord about how to address this soul since this has happened more than once.

Lord, how do I address this??? I am in pain. The night was sweet but the challenge from this soul really left a sour ache in the pit of my stomach. I-- am hurting. Ezekiel is hurting.-- --

Whenever you hurt, I hurt. Yet I understand that Satan is beginning to move on the community in new ways to cause division.-- --

Jesus help me.-- --

"What you are feeling is correct."-- --

Do you mean about this particular soul?

"Yes." "This needs to be addressed."

Lord, I do not believe he will take me seriously, would you please speak to him?

"I will." Jesus began, "My son, I have called you to cast off the ways of your mother and the world, and all the religious/intellectual baggage you've been carrying around. When I called you to be the man of God, I created you to be, I was not inferring that you should be more legalistic and religious, but less. In other words, I am calling you to a deeper level of humility than you have ever known so that I may raise you up into My anointing and love for souls."

You have a choice to make, between being the 'knowledgeable man who knows about God' or the man who 'knows God, and is known by God, and walks in God's love.' I know you have chosen to love and I equip you for that daily, but your intellect is pulling you in a different direction that can be used to cancel out your works of love."

Lord please, I don't want any of this to be me. Please help me.

"Be patient My Dove, be patient and allow Me to speak to him through you, whether it makes sense or not. Abandon the results to Me. Allow Me, please, Clare."

Okay, Jesus, I trust in You.

Jesus continued, "On the one hand you can walk in superior knowledge," Scripture quote, "This 'knowledge' puffs up, but love builds up. 2 If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. -- --

On the other hand, "If you love Me and are known by Me (intimately), 3 But if anyone loves God, he is known by God, for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist."

In other words, you can know Me so well that you walk in Me and therefore you are in "a place where all knowledge resides, in My heart, even as you will be in Heaven."

I am calling you to a higher reality. It is the realm of the Spirit where all things are known, through love. Not intellectual prowess, but love. As you dwell in Me, the vine, the branch just naturally puts forth the fruit. As a Christian, you will be identified by your love, not your knowledge. Words are cheap, love costs. The price tag on love is ALWAYS high, even to the point of appearing ignorant by abandoning intellectual prowess and clever arguments.

For you, becoming the man of God that I want you to be has nothing to do with exhibiting your knowledge or having superior knowledge, because the man who thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. This is you right now, this is your Achilles heel. You do not yet know as you ought to know, therefore the devils can manipulate you into doing damage with what you think you know.

The kind of knowing I am talking about is expressed through love, meekness and humility, and has no interest in being right or proving others wrong. You are opening yourself to the tactics of the enemy now. He is playing you on your need to be right, your need to prove yourself. You do not have to prove yourself to Me, My son. And you will never prove yourself to your parents without their conversion of heart.

It is the same with your son. When you disregard his wish for you not to talk God talk, and do it anyway, you excuse yourself by saying that this is just you, the way you are. But I say, stop pushing your son away. Listen to him. Be his friend. The time will come when his heart is ready.-- -- Do you really think I will not answer all your prayers and tears for your family? Do you really think you are helping Me bring them in? You are not. You can not win any arguments from a hardened heart. I must first soften their hearts before they will be able to acknowledge the truth that you have discovered. No one comes to Me unless the Father draws him.

You can assist in that process by your love, patience, and meekness, or you can try to bulldoze your way in with Scripture and knowledge when their hearts are far from ready to understand.-- -- Your son needs his father, not a preacher. When the time comes, he will be ready and then you can help him navigate the path to holiness that I am leading you on.-- --

What I mean by that is that love is the answer, not doctrinal correctness. Words are cheap, love is costly. I have called you to unburden your heart from the chains your parents and society have bound you with. The chains that make you feel that you always have to be right and correct. Those things, My Son are odious to Me and get you nowhere with humankind whose greatest need is to be heard and loved.

They may argue against your doctrine, but they have no argument against your unconditional love, patience, meekness and joy. The whole world longs for this, and that is why you must lay down your gospel shotgun and wrap your warm and loving arms around their hearts. They can argue doctrine, but there is no argument against love. Love conquers all.

8 Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away, and the perfect, is LOVE.

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

4 Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant 5 or rude. It is not irritable or resentful; 6 it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. 7 Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

It does not insist on its own way; it does not say "That's just me, that's the way I am." And as a result, leave a soul seeking comfort to fend for themselves with yet another Bible barb. You have been taught the wrong way and are still seeking answers in the wrong places. You will not find what you need in more religious knowledge. You will find it by serving, being very little, meek and tender. The heart I gave you has all that potential to reach others through love.-- -- That is what you should be cultivating, not more book knowledge which will only feed your curiosity and pride.

You would do well to study the lives of St. Therese and Francis, My little poor man. You would do even better to imitate their way of life. You are so close My son, all that is left of you to shed is the need to know, have authority and be looked up to as knowledgeable.

A man's knowledge of God and the Faith is measured by the demonstration of his love and humility. Where humility is lacking there is ignorance. Uh oh, I'm in trouble.

8 Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. 11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. 12 For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.

So Beloved son, you are on the right track with love and humility, but the enemy will attempt to lead you astray through the acquisition of knowledge. Right now, in this moment you already know too much, and have not fully lived what you do know. So, this is My mandate for you, love until it hurts. See yourself as the least among your brothers and sisters. Be little, little, little My son. Hold others in great esteem, even those who seem the lesser among you, for it is a truth that the lesser ones are greater in the eyes of Heaven.

I want you to know that I know you are making valiant efforts to conquer yourself, and I am so pleased with your recognition of your short falls. Do not let those bother you dear one, for I am using them to bring you to perfection. Just cooperate with the graces given and be willing to be a little nobody who knows nothing. Then I will be able to trust you with My greater gifts. I embrace you dear one, I embrace you with the most profound feelings of love for you. You are well on your way; Satan hates you so be ever so cautious not to allow pride to spoil it."

OBSERVATION

Last week when another soul had just waxed the floor and you were trying to fix the water heater, I felt like you blew me off on the floor and just how important it was for you not to get it dirty. I know you put the plastic bags on and off, but when you saw what it was doing to the floor, I felt like you should have told me and worked on another way to do the job without ruining the job this soul did on the floor.

The next day, another did the very same thing to you with the window. You really tried to get him to understand how important it was that he put the right window in, but he ignored you and didn't bother himself to do it the way you asked him to. Ezekiel and I were discussing that and he was the first one to see that there was a relationship between you ignoring the work the soul did on the floor and the soul that ignored you with the window.-- --

The Lord wants you to be more acutely aware when such things happen to you and stop, ask yourself, "How have I done this very same thing to some one else?" And wait for the answer, in this way you will see many lessons you are missing in your daily life.-- --

That was the end of the message.

We can all relate to this soul and if we can be honest with ourselves, we have all been in their shoes one time or another. Upon reading this message even I was convicted because I just received a correction from the Lord where I fell in my pride in demanding my own way.

I had some souls contending with me concerning a decision I felt the Lord put on my heart and I asserted my authority firmly that I was right and they were wrong. I was also hurt by them contending with me and felt undermined. Sunday morning when we gathered together Jesus gave me the rhema, "Our Holy Poverty will not do very much more than be noble aspirations if our Humility and Charity are not in place. The saints did not demand their way, and they were sensitive, courteous and unselfish." I was so humbled in front of everyone.-- --

I now have to think did the Lord allow that trial because I wasn't seeing how I was asserting myself on others. So, he allowed others to demand their own way so I would know how it feels.-- -- Ouch, it's so painful to be humbled by the Lord in this way, but more painful when you realize you have hurt others in the process because of needing to be right.

May the Lord give us all the grace to be sensitive, courteous, unselfish and meek in our dealings with others. God bless you Heart Dweller Family until the next message.

Everything Is In God's Hands..

November 25, 2020

Dear Family, don't be discouraged about what you hear on social media and mainstream mob news, they are just doing their usual of lying through their teeth. The proper title for Mr. Biden is Vice President Biden. He is in no way an elect, because the election was a complete fraud and that will soon be exposed.

Remember, the ballots were watermarked and they can be read from satellite, so they can be found in dumpsters and people's basements and storage, etc., etc. What the President did was a sting operation to expose all the criminals in our government so they can be put in jail and some of them executed for sedition. So be patient, I believe all this will be cleared within two weeks.

When I came to listen to the Lord, I asked Him, what is this all about that Ezekiel was steeped in Revelation for the entire night? And all these rhema readings about the Rapture and different parts of Revelation?

Jesus began, "Haven't I told you, My coming to get you would be a surprise?"

Indeed, you have Lord.

He continued, "These times are tumultuous, dangerous, but not insurmountable if the Body will cleave together and to Me this restoration of power will come to pass. Not without struggle, but it will come to pass. What you are dealing with now are massive demonic assaults, both on a personal level and national level. There are more than enough believers to overthrow this attempt, but the media is very strong."

You remember five years ago when I told you and all heart dwellers to stay off main stream media. Why? Because they were setting you all up to cave in to overwhelming odds. But there are men and women in this country that are powerful believers and have kept the oil in their lamps burning and know right from wrong. They ask for courage daily to keep on fighting and I am not slow in giving it to them.-- --

Ever since President Trump won, they have been working on ways to undermine him. And many have risen up to stand with him, many new and empowered by Me, media outlets are standing for truth, accumulating more and more influence as those who have been asleep are waking up to the perilous condition of their nation, and the lying media. These are the times My Mother spoke of when she said that communism would spread its errors all over the world (and that happened during the Fatima Apparitions in 1917)." He continued, "These are the times of the iron and clay feet, that will be eventually be shattered and fall."

Lord, do you want our people to seek updates from legitimate sources of news?

Jesus continued, "It is good to know right from wrong. It is good to be able to distinguish the evil ones and their tactics. If the people know nothing, they are more likely to collapse in the face of such overwhelming odds.-- --

My people you must understand what you are dealing with and pass these things on to other believers who want to stand for what is right but are confused. Do not allow people to be confused about what they are up against. These limited but true resources will help establish the grounding. You already know that those who would kill an innocent child in the womb are on the wrong side. Christians who support such as these will be held guilty for the slaughter of the innocents because they knew better but did not uphold what was right.-- --

Things are not always as they seem. I did not come to earth as a great warrior on a proud steed. I came meekly, humbly and in poverty, but filled with the wisdom and anointing to set the captives free from sin. I was not recognized for who I was because of social opinion. While your President is a mere man, one well acquainted with sin and loose living, he is still My choice, because he has the heart of a great warrior and leader. Those who are looking for the Hollywood manners are quickly derailed by his gruffness. However, your country and this world is in such a state that only one with this countenance can handle bringing it down, so it can be raised up again.

I am telling you now, you have many surprises ahead of you, not the least of which is the Rapture. I told you I would come at an hour you least expected, and what does your heart tell you?"

Lord, the signs are so prolific, the signs of prophecies for the appointed time are everywhere we turn and the Antichrist, Obama is here, so it seems that the Rapture cannot be that far off.-- -- When Trump wins, I would be very surprised if the Rapture happened.

He replied, "And you are correct in saying that, yet this is not My call, but the Father's, and He can delay or loose it anytime He chooses. And while you are waiting, tired and longing for My coming, He is still looking to the souls He wants to save, to the prophets being born into your midst, who will make their mark on this world. Yet the world ripens. None the less He can delay that harvest if He so chooses. You have prayed for more time, more grace and more mercy, and so have many others. But the day is coming when He will say enough!!

I cannot tell you when it will be Beloved, but I counsel all of you to keep your eyes wide open and be aware of what is going on in your world. When the word is given, I will come swiftly, so keep oil in your lamps and do not grow weary in well doing. Ask Me for the courage, strength and grace to carry on full steam ahead until the very last moment." Phew, I sure need to ask for that.

"And do your best to educate those who have been asleep. Give them links to reliable sites they can get an overview of what has been forming their minds for so many years. Have them listen to the Presidential announcements and his legal team, so they can get it first-hand. Remind them that I have consistently told you all to stay away from main stream media and seek answers from Me, for I will never cease to give them. When you feel peace, you will know that you are understanding, and My wisdom and My thoughts will be in your heart and mind as yours have been, Clare."-- --

Thank You for saying that Lord, I do sometimes wonder.-- --

"You are in a good place of understanding Beloved. Now I wish for all to be educated to what the truth of this situation is."-- --

Lord, I found James Fetzner's site. Is he correct in what he is saying? This was a really interesting site that I ran into. It is very, very well organized to the point, point for point, and he's talking about a worse plague being released once people are brought to, once they start being arrested and people are brought to justice that there will be retribution from the deep state. It sounded so fatalistic that it troubled my heart. So, I asked the Lord if he was correct in what he was saying. -- -- Jesus continued, "Not quite, he is not taking into consideration My intervention. I am far more invasive in controlling events than most understand. It takes a prayer warrior mentality to understand what I can do, even with those who mistakenly believe they have absolute power. They play out their scenarios without the understanding of how I will turn evil to good and prevent those things they so counted on to ruin people.

Yes, there will be another plague, but it will not be beyond the reach of prayer to bring it to an end. There is nothing impossible for Me Clare, nothing. You can pray your way out of the worst situation if it is within My will to bring to nothing the plans of the evil ones. What I am looking for My Tender Bride, is repentance. I am still waiting for My people to realize how they have abused their wealth and forgotten the poor in their midst. Do try harder My Love to find those who need your help. Please do."

I admit Lord, I have not worked hard enough at that and I am now, please bring these people to me so I can understand who they are and what they really need. Please help me, because I long to help more souls but I need your help with my memory.-- --

"We are making headway," He replied, "But always leave your hands open to comfort more who are under such heavy burdens. Do all you can My love, to lighten them."

People come to us all the time, not enough money for an electric bill, not enough money for rent and they need groceries, medical bills and it's just amazing and the Lord supplies, and thanks to your generosity dear ones, we are able to help everyone who comes to us.

Jesus continued, "When you hear these prognostications of gloom and doom, remember these are presented to you as if no prayer had been applied. So, they are the worst case scenarios. But prayer is what changes things, it moves mountains into the sea, and shelters the most vulnerable. How wonderful the times have been for the poor who recognize their abject poverty and reliance on Me." And when He said that I saw two little dark-skinned children maybe oh nine, eight, nine years old sitting in a culvert with the water coming by and an orange came floating by them and they both rejoiced and grabbed it and ate it. -- --

Then He continued and said, "It is My joy to feed the poor who have no other recourse. It is My joy for them to discover that it was Me in that culvert sending them a gift of food to brighten their day and strengthen them. Such as these live like the angels. They awake in the morning not knowing where their next meal comes from until a coconut is found nearby, or a fishing line with bait is discovered snagged in the bushes. They live literally from hand to mouth. Oh how I love to bless these little ones. This is why these poor are blessed even beyond the rich who seem to have everything, they receive all that is good from My hand directly. When you give to the poor you most resemble My Father's heart. I rejoice in the generosity of My Bride."

Now, I wish to repeat what I have told you before. Your President won this election, now it is just a matter of proving it and exposing the crooked. Stand behind him, pray for him, pray for the judicial process, and spread the good news to those who are just beginning to wake up. Things will get more turbulent but I am counting on your prayers to bring about a peaceful ending.

Those who are evil and have set their hearts against Me, will attempt to cause more and more trouble. It is a truth that they are planning a more deadly strain of virus to retaliate on your nation's independence. It is true but it is not set in concrete. They are planning to do much more damage to your country but I am telling you that you can stop them without leaving your prayer closet. Pray against the wicked schemes, pray Psalm 91 over your family and nation.-- -- Pray every day with conviction that I will answer your prayers. Do good to others, show mercy, donate to good causes, help those around you in need, for all of these are gestures of love for Me. These acts of kindness make your prayers ten times more powerful while at the same time, open up protection for you and your family from Me and My angels.

Take the time every day to repent of ways you may have offended me. Even reciting Psalm 51 with a sincere heart is a powerful way to bring about a cleansing. Give generously. Pray courageously, knowing that I am more powerful than the most deadly virus. Do what is right My people, and I will look after you and your loved ones."

That reminds me of the story of Heidi Baker and she went into a tent of Ebola victims and prayed over them and they were all healed. Amazing, just amazing, so the Lord is the Lord over Ebola as well. So, that was the end of His message and I just wanted to share some links with you. People who I have found to be on the Lord's side. Tom Fitton's Judicial Watch, The Epoch Times, News Max, James Fetzer, Sovereign Nations, The White House press conferences, Robert David Steele, Sean Hannity, C-Span and the Executive Branch and Charlie Ward, that I am aware of these people but I can't say that they are 100% on the good side because I don't know them that well, but they seem to be independent of the swamp. And please understand, this will end up in the Supreme Court, so do not be discouraged when you hear of another state throwing out suits for election fraud, this has to come about in order for the Supreme Court to decide. There is SO much evidence that cannot be released until it is presented in court, so please be patient and pray.

Power In The Prayer of Exhaustion

November 26, 2020

The Lord encourage your precious heart dwellers, we are fighting the good fight and we will win. When I came into prayer, I happened pull a Rhema card from my collection and it said "You are the lamp stands suspended between Heaven and Earth." And I knew the Lord was referring to us as prayer warriors and intercessors. I had just run across an article on EMF's, Electro Magnetic Force, and wondered very much if that was connected to prayer, or if prayer put out that kind of energy. So, when I came into prayer, the Lord immediately began to answer my question.

"You asked Me," He began, "A question about energy waves and intercession. There are most certainly measurable energy waves released in intercession, even the one you feel lame about, that is when you are feeling heavy under a burden. Once the agreement has been made with a soul, that they have given their lives to Me to do with as I see fit, there will be times when I draw upon that soul to intervene by carrying a burden.-- --

Yes, it is very true that when you carry a burden, for Me, that is you have a prayer burden for a soul that is in desperate need, like the soul of this nation, you can expect to feel it in your body if you are electronically sensitive. You have observed this for many years now, your body goes down, a feeling similar to adrenal exhaustion, which is tied into the production of this energy, and you feel like nothing more than a blob lying there, almost senseless, hardly able to even focus.

Clare, it is in times like this that I take you up on the gift you have made to Me, of your total being. There is so much to prayer that is not understood. I know you feel like you've accomplished more in travailing prayer, and truly it is significant and passionate. However, you are not to discount those times when you feel like there is nothing left of you and you are offering even that to Me. You are like a wet dish towel thrown to the side. However, it is in times like this when I am siphoning off your grieving energy and receiving it as a fasting prayer offering and using it as a means to move mountains. May I say, the more useless you feel, because of this torpor setting in, the safer you are and freer from vain glory, for your prayers do not seem to be eloquent or passionate.

While the passionate prayer of the righteous man avails much, so does the surrendered prayer of a soul who has given their whole life's blood as a sacrifice to Me. This is what this state of spiritual torpor is all about."

Now torpor is defined as a state of physical or mental inactivity, similar to lethargy. For instance, bears do this when they hibernate. All physical systems are put on the minimum amount of energy necessary to survive in a state of deep rest.-- --

This is different from what the mystics call acedia, which is spiritual sloth.

Forgive me Lord, but I have been feeling that perhaps my problem is spiritual sloth, please do not let me off easy, but tell me as much of the truth as I can handle. Please, I do not want to lead anyone astray, that is, telling them this is a form of intercession when instead it is just plain old laziness and indifference.

"Spiritual sloth is indeed a sin you are prone to," Jesus replied, "But you do not realize that when you are falling into a stupor over intercession because you are truly standing between Heaven and earth in an intercession that captures all of your senses and dulls them, almost as if you were asleep. This is legitimate prayer."

Lord, I know I have been lazy in prayer, please forgive me and help me.

"I will, and part of that help is explaining to you the difference between spiritual sloth and a spiritual torpor. Sloth is out right neglect, not pressing in, giving up at the littlest resistance or distraction. Your monitoring of the events because of the grief and anxiousness you have felt-- -- -- is one dynamic (borderline distraction and giving in to curiosity). It is difficult for you or anyone for that matter to pull away from a news source. It is addictive. But in this situation that is so critical, it is good for you to have solid information so you don't remain ignorant. And that is why I have put a certain source in your life, he is quite aware of what is going on from behind the scenes and from the viewpoint of military intelligence.

When you heard the news about China bribing Republicans, you let out a deep sigh of relief because something was finally breaking and revealing the fraud. You also woke up this morning without that dark cloud over your head. That was part of your intercessory offering. These symptoms disappearing at a time when news breaks should tell you quite a bit about where your heart was and why you walked in such a cloud of darkness for days."

Well, my heart was greatly relieved, and I did care very much, and I couldn't stop thanking You for what You are doing to reveal the corruption.

"Clare, spiritual sloth is more about not caring. The voice of this attitude is, "Oh, who cares, it's not important to me. What difference will that make, my life is so far removed from all these things." This was the attitude you once had before you were born again."

Yes Lord, that pretty well sums it up.

Jesus continued, "I really want to make a point here, but you are not letting Me. Yes, I know you have been lax at specific prayers, but I also know your heart grieves for what this nation is going through and the implications it has on the whole world. It is that grief that I am speaking about, I harness that grief, so to speak and as you are suspended between heaven and earth, that grief counts as powerful prayer. You are interceding. Your grief is your prayer. You could attach a lot of pretty words to that and feel like you were doing more, but you are right in not doing that. Your prayer is your grief. Period. And I honor that, especially because it comes from the heart.-- -- If you tried to make that into an intercessory prayer for everyone, it would not carry the weight which is coming from the grief in your heart, not from eloquent words.

What I am saying here is nothing new. Many years ago, I told you, "A sigh is a prayer." In other words, My heart is moved to action when your heart is grieved and lets out a sigh, We are One after all.

To continue to believe it is spiritual sloth is a misconception that leads to discouragement, making you feel worthless and unable to pray. But the truth is far from that. It is the grief in your heart that is authentic prayer and the feeling of emptiness, and not having accomplished anything that is a suffering and adds to the virtue of your prayer.-- --

In this way you are not congratulating yourself on strong prayer, "Wow I really travailed for that!" But are simply giving all, you had that comes from the depths of your heart, in a way that you are unaware of.-- --

Many get this confused with acedia, which is the name for spiritual sloth and indifference, kind of a stupor, where nothing matters. Far from feeling that nothing matters, your heart is riveted on the situation you are praying for in such a way that you and I are immersed in it. In many ways you are in fact feeling much of what I am feeling for the situation.

I do want you to share this because many of My prayer warriors have grown weary and feel so ineffective in prayer. But I tell you, I am going deeper with them, I am mining the grief in their hearts that they feel over the current situation. It is a powerful offering to feel bankrupt and unable to do any good. Everyone longs to be effective, to make a difference, to be needed and wanted, everyone. And not to feel that way is a suffering. To feel worthless and without power is a suffering and it is then that you are releasing more and more offerings, fast offerings, to see My Hand move and change things.

So, My people, I know you are exhausted from waiting and praying and waiting some more, but do not grow weary, this feeling of being drained and worthless is part and parcel of the prayer offering you have made of yourselves to Me. You have given your whole life and being to Me and I am harvesting wonderful fruit that will affect not only this nation, but the whole world.

Imagine a great river flowing through this nation. Imagine seeking out all the tributaries that make this great river, as you did on assignment for Readers Digest when you followed the Mississippi River from the mouth, all the way to the head waters in the north. Many streams and even rivers flowed through Minnesota adding to the volume of water that finally terminated as a great river into the Gulf of Mexico. And so, it is with the great volume of prayers that are being released to reinstate your President in what was truly a land slide election for him.-- --

Each of you like a stream or small river, are allowing the waters of grace to pass through your beings and be added to the other thousands of rivulets that are all accumulating in a land slide win for your President. Though you don't feel very consequential, all your combined efforts are a formidable force, a force that is preventing the Antichrist from pushing his agenda through.-- -- He will fail in this endeavor until My Father gives the word to bring My Bride home. Then He will take over and undo all the good your President has done thus far.-- --

That is not a reason for you to be discouraged. That is a reason for you to rejoice and keep on fighting so that when the time comes I can exult in liberating you from all the pains of death and bring you home, from the very midst of your work for Me, triumphantly bringing you to the banquet table where I will don the servant's clothing and wait on you. So My words to you My Brides, is continue in the great commission, knowing that every effort of yours is bringing you closer to that time when I will say to you, "Well done My good and faithful servant. Enter into your Master's joy."

Persevere When The Battle Rages

November 28, 2020

My Beloved family of Heart Dwellers, may the Lord's assurance bring you Peace. We will win this battle. And by the way, I am not changing anything about my channel or mission, I am not becoming more political in that direction, I just wanting you to know what's going on, to be informed so that you can pray effectively for our President and the nation. Please pray for the congressmen who may very well end up making the decision about who our president will be.-- --

I believe we all have things in our past that we are not proud of doing, and right now this dark group is searching for any way they can to blackmail those in congress so they will not vote for Trump. But our President is no fool--and I believe he will make it possible for them to feel secure enough to stand. I pray that they realize that caving in to threats against them personally or their families, is the worst choice they could make because they would be further empowering evil to proliferate in their very own lifetimes.

In any case, please, please stay on your knees praying for them as much as you can, and Robert David Steele as well. His interviews and the information he shares is priceless and right on target. Pray for effectiveness in his part in saving our nation and the world from evil. Also, a good source is Epoch Times, and you can always go to the video section.

Please forgive my ignorance, but I have to say, be careful of--anyone on Fox News, which I am not watching any longer. But there are several new stations popping up and you will know them by their fruit. I believe they will be openly supportive of our President's move to protect the true votes of the citizens.

Lord, do you have something to share?

"My faithful ones, your prayers are changing the future of your families, nations and the world.-- -- Do not grow weary. Even as I told you in the last message, when you have nothing left to offer, offer that nothing and I will count it as a very great treasure.-- --

I see your tears, your prayers, your waiting before Me and your support of this ministry and the nation. I am well pleased with you all, even down to the little ones. Do you know My little ones, you are My favorites? Truly you are, I hope I just put a smile on your face, because I mean it with all My heart. You have so little to give (that reminds me of the Church of Philadelphia which the Lord has called us before, going back) you have so little to give, but it comes from such a very pure and dedicated heart.

Remember, I was the Little One in the eyes of the religious world and My favorite companions were little as well, except for the one who betrayed Me.

As you pray and buckle down to intercede, I want you to remember that I am also bringing a new day to you. There will come a time when the pressures you are under will subside and your hearts will bloom with creativity and joy. I know I have said this for a long time, but now if all continues in the right direction because of your commitments to pray, this will come about. With it will come new gifts and anointings. Some of you have already been sensing new directions I will be bringing you into. Persevere My Beloved ones, persevere. I am with you at your right-hand side, holding you up. Never cease to call on Me for strength for I truly am with you, watching over you, sustaining you with My love."

That's the end of His message. But I just want to share with you, up here on the mountain with our community of souls, several of us have seen the Lord walking into the room with new gifts, new giftings that He is giving to different ones. So, I know it's coming it is almost like a scent of Spring in the air, but it is still a ways off. So, hold on dear ones, hold on firmly to the hope you have in the Lord and know that this is His Will for us to overcome this darkness at this time. And please, I am seriously entreating you, do not to get wrapped up in the holidays. Don't let it overtake your prayer time. Do not let it replace your prayer time, this time is too critical for us to be distracted off into the stores and holiday shopping. So, please, please continue on in prayer and do not let the holidays lure you away from the Lord and His agenda right now.

I was just finishing editing this message when one of our team let me know about a notification, he got late last night, and this is what it said:

URGENT PRAYER, has been requested.

"Just received a call directly from Sidney Powell's team. Asking for prayer. Stating they have "never felt such demonic attack before." Pray also for Trump's Legal Team. Thank you. (And please forward on to serious intercessors)."

So, I am sharing this with you, obviously they are getting slammed from the dark side. So, please pray deliverance over them, cover them with the Blood of Jesus. Guys, I can only imagine what they are being attacked by, but from our experience, I wouldn't be surprised if it is something that will divide and turn them against one another and even injure their bodies, so let's pray.

Father, we lift up these leaders to you right now, we cover them with the Blood of Jesus. We ask You Holy Spirit to break the power of darkness that has come against them. In the Name of Jesus Christ, we bind every hindering spirit, spirits of division, lying, suspicion, rancor, confusion, betrayal, rage, jealousy, misunderstanding, miscommunication, fatigue and brain fog, misinformation and fear. We take authority over these evil legions sent to cause havoc among them, and in the Name of Jesus Christ, we command these demons to go to the feet of Jesus for Him to deal with Now.

And in the Name of Jesus Christ, we break every curse, hex, evil wish and spell cast upon them, we decommission every wicked assignment against them, by the Power of the Shed Blood of the Cross. We bind all the Strongmen and Gatekeepers assigned against them in the Name of Jesus the Christ, and ask Saint Michael to destroy every witchcraft covering and covenant from the first and second heaven and dismantle the operation piece by piece, never to rise up against them again. And may the Holy Spirit bring clarity, peace and wisdom in their midst and may all attempts to divide or injure them fail totally.

We ask the Holy Angels and the Blessed Mother, to cover and protect each one of them and their families, pets and property. And to set up holy shields and force fields to prohibit evil from reaching them. Let there be peace among them and strength and wisdom. We ask these things in Jesus' precious Name and by the Power of the Shed Blood of the Cross. Amen.

RAPTURE ALERT

November 29, 2020

My Dear Heart Dwellers, this is a Rapture alert!!!

My Mother has been trying to get my attention every time I turn around, for at least three days to a week, and five to seven times in the last day and a half. It has been a sign from her since her death, that the numbers 711 appear. Either on a clock or on something I'm recording. That is her birth date. And last night Ezekiel got it too and we looked at each other and he said, "Mom what is this all about?" And I felt in my spirit, it was about the Rapture.-- --

Then Ezekiel heard her say, "He's coming. The Lord is coming, get yourself prepared." And later that morning she spoke again to Ezekiel, "I'm only doing for you what you did for me. I'm helping you get ready." Because Ezekiel did a great deal to help my Mother cross over into the Lord's arms when she was dying. She also said, "You did the same for me before I went, you prepared me to go, I'm returning the favor." And that's true, you can read that account in the introduction to Chronicles of the Bride.

Wow, no words for that.

So, I came to pray and started praying, more time, more grace, more mercy. And the Lord interrupted me. "Is that what you really want?"

And I thought oh no it's really not, I'm exhausted. And I answered Him and said, Oh Lord you know in my heart, I have failed in so many areas. I have wasted my life on me, and I'm still selfish and worse yet, I haven't gotten any more music done. My heart is crushed with my inequities, laziness and lack of faith.

And Jesus replied, "You're forgiven." No more time for sorrow, I have washed your slate clean, please try to keep it that way for just a little longer. By the way, have I told you how proud I am of you for setting aside music to tend to the real needs of others? No, I don't guess I have, or you wouldn't be grieving and crying right now." And that was true I was crying this whole time.

"Clare, you have no idea the forces that have aligned themselves against you to force you to quit. May I say, it is quite an accomplishment that you have not quit."

I owe it all to Your grace and Your mother's intercession.

"None the less," He replied, "I see you sitting tall in the saddle, not hunched over like a tired old woman half dead. Stop seeing yourself that way. You are young and spry in My eyes."

I said, Lord that rhymes!

"I would give anything to see a smile on that face right now. I know how you feel, I know it well, I live in side of you My Love. I weep when you weep, but I weep because you don't know just how remarkably faithful you have been."

Lord, I've never been more than a B student, ever in my life.

"You didn't start out with all A's. You took quite a wallop in your younger years and Satan has had his eye on you all the while. What could have been is irrelevant now. What is in fact real is what counts. And you've done well with the short hand you've been dealt. Your problem is that your desire nature always sees what could be, but you haven't all the tools to make it happen. But you are getting them as you grow wiser with age, and therefore you are doing all you can. I tell you where you fall down and need to repent, and repent you do. See, I have much to be proud of with you.-- --"

Now, I want you to tell the Heart Dwellers the very same thing. My Beloved ones, there are those among you who have truly given their all in as much as My grace accompanied you. There are others who wanted to, but never quite could. But I say to you, the time of forgiveness is upon you. I see your weaknesses and how you have caved under the pressure of your flesh and the demons behind it. Many, many, many of you have suffered incredible setbacks, but you've rallied, always believing in Me and what I have promised you. That alone is worth all the joys of Heaven to Me.

But even if you fall into the category of those who caved into their flesh in moments of extreme weakness, you do not see the tremendous pressures you have been under from the enemy. So, I want you to stop, right now, stop condemning yourselves.-- --

Repentance is appropriate for those lapses, so stir your hearts, recall your unconfessed sins, the times you didn't do the right thing, the times you caved under the demands of the flesh and the enemy. Get it out of your system. Come to Me and tell Me, ask forgiveness, and it shall be yours. But when you come bring the whole truth and leave out nothing that comes to mind. Let Me wash you clean as snow with My very own Blood and put these things out of your minds.-- --

When you have done that, make a firm purpose of amendment to stop repeating those sins and keep yourselves very, very clean. For I come. Do everything in your reach to love and serve others. Keep the oil burning in your lamps, the oil of love for Me and for your brother and sister. Take every opportunity to deny yourself for the sake of others, because you are entering the home stretch. Any minute now, I will come for you. Be prepared, be prepared, be prepared, PLEASE be prepared. Do not allow any occasion of charity and self-sacrifice to pass you by. Use every opportunity, every moment to give of yourself. Consider Me in all of your actions and forget about yourself.

Now I want you to know that I recognize the great weariness you are laboring under. Yes, I do and I understand, but I am still here for you with My strength to help you in moments of weakness, so grab a firm hold on my hand and don't let go. Don't let go, not even for a second, hold firm to My hand and My ways. If you should fail in a moment of weakness, confess it immediately and I will forgive you and renew you with new resolve. You haven't long to wait dear ones, the time approaches. It is coming quickly.-- -

But more than anything, I want you to all know that I have seen your struggles and have thanked My Father in Heaven profusely for you and the way you have struggled even when you were surrounded by darkness, confusion, betrayal and sorrow. I have thanked Him for all the ways you have done what was right when you wanted to run the other way and do what was wrong. You persevered and in Heaven that is one of the greatest virtues of all.-- --

This is not a Rapture drill, this time it is the real thing, so do what you can in this moment, do what you can while you are still here. I will be with you in everything and in the end, you will be quite shocked at all you did accomplish with My grace. From Heaven you will see clearly the lineup of opposition you faced at critical times in your lives. You will see the fruit you bore and the consequences of all your plowing, sowing and watering.

I have withheld this from you so far so that you would continue to work hard for Me, but in Heaven you will see it all."

Jesus, will we also see the bad we did?

"You have seen the bad, you have repented, those things have been wiped away. The things you did not recognize were wrong, that you did not repent of, yes, you will see those things under the covering of copious mercy and forgiveness. Again, you will be washed clean. But what I want to stress to you now, is that you have done well and will have much to rejoice over when you see the levels you have risen to with what you've been given in this lifetime.

What I want to get across to all of you, is that you have done much better than you feel you have done, and there will be a great day of rejoicing and reward. There will be no purgatory for those who are raptured, this will be a jubilee day of great forgiveness. In Heaven you will be equipped with all the graces you have ever longed for, and you will not have any opposition from the enemy. Then in that moment, when you realize there is no longer crushing opposition, the kind you have grown accustomed to walking in day after day after day, in that moment you will have gotten a glimpse into what you overcame on this earth, and that will bring you boundless joy.

Come now My Bride, I am in the waiting room, ready to take you to myself. Put away your tears after truly examining your conscience, put away your regrets, your sorrows and prepare your hearts for joy so abundant that your very heart will have to expand to hold it all in. Rejoice! Your time of liberation is at hand!" And that was the end of His message.-- -- --

Well, my dear family, what can I say? I had just told the Lord that I did not expect to be raptured when Donald Trump was re-elected. He has been re-elected, and the only issue is what will the dark ones try to do to prevent him from taking office?-- --

I must tell you; things are ramping up big time in the middle east, and with China as well, but I don't believe they will start a war before he takes office because, isn't it written that a president cannot leave office during a war? Not too sure about that, but I have heard something to that effect.

Remembering back six years ago when we were on a serious rapture watch, the Lord did tell us that He would come at a time we least expected Him. For me that time is President Trump's second term when we could do so much good. But think about it for a moment. What if we were taken in the midst of that victory, and all those sitting on the fence would wake up and a huge revival would take place? Think about it, doesn't that make sense as well?-- --

All of a sudden there would be a new Body of Christ on earth, one equipped with rock solid conviction and faith walking into the Tribulation, ready to give their lives or live in protected communities. What a massive revival and falling away would take place as those who were truly committed lunged forward while those who were never really committed would fall backward into the evil that will overtake and rule this world.

No matter what, dear ones, I feel this is a very serious wake up call for all of us. Remember also that in all of our Rapture visions, the army of God was descending coming to judge the earth as we were ascending. Yes! The warriors of destruction were descending to the earth to bring full scale war, while we were being taken up. We met and passed by them in the air. Peace was taken from the earth as we were leaving. And I think it was noteworthy, it really caught my attention and quicken to me, that the peace deal was made between Egypt and Israel in the middle east, that really caught my attention, but the Scriptures say, "Peace, peace! But there is no peace." And it seems that peace could be taken from us at any moment. So, to me when that actually happened, I felt that I've got to pay attention to this from the Holy Spirit this was what was written in the Scriptures that they would be saying finally peace, but it would not last.

The other way it could go, is that this is a serious warning to all of us, the Lord is about to re-equip us for the last leg of our journey, but He must let us know this is our last chance to get it right and finish the work He has given us. Now if that happened, I would be really happy because I could finish with my music, but I confess there are plenty of days where I have to drag myself to the keyboard and I don't have the excitement and the joy that I use to have writing music. It's become really hard, hard labor for me. So, unless He gave me a grace to counteract that, it wouldn't do any good for me if the time were extended, yet for others it might or perhaps things would get worse. How do we know? I leave it in His hands.

Only the Father knows which one it is. So, don't give up your post, don't give up your work, do what you can with the strength God gives you each day and rejoice that the time has come to judge the earth, stay watchful. Communities be prepared, draw together and make ready, and give all you can to Jesus as a wedding gift, for surely the Bridegroom cometh!!!

November 30, 2020

My Dear Family, yesterday I was accepting that the Rapture was about to happen, but then last night I had a breakthrough with music. And I thought to myself, I will work on this as much as I can until the Rapture actually happens. I also thought to myself, maybe this was a kick in the pants for me to take things much more seriously and work on music nonstop. Maybe the release we are all waiting for will still happen! And Our Father will hold off just a little time longer. Only Our Father knows, but I am convinced this is the moment of truth, we are approaching the rapture in real time.

Dear Family, you must remember, the Lord still does not know the time. Just like we are all to be ready, for we know not the hour, so He also must keep His Heavenly army prepared and in readiness for the call could come at any moment. Perhaps my Mother became aware of new preparations and was allowed to shoot a warning shot to wake up what was left in me.

Dear ones, the last time my Mother appeared to me, Ezekiel almost died, he ended up having emergency surgery that changed his life in the middle of the night. So, I do not take warnings from her lightly.

But let me tell you this much, three senior members of our community had the very same readings, the one was given a rapture song by Misty Edwards. Out of the mouth of two or three His word will be confirmed. And I would not have warned you with these promptings, from my Mother and Ezekiel if I had not had plenty of substantiating confirmations, even from the Bible Promises, the Holy Spirit, Guidance, in the Twinkling of an Eye, Scriptures that were given not only to me, but to Ezekiel and other senior members of the community. We gathered together to weigh the evidence and that's where this message came from.

Now, I want to reason this out with you and perhaps the Lord will weight in and clarify, if He is free to. This is what I said in last night's message, "The other way it could go, is that this is a serious warning to all of us, the Lord is about to re-equip us for the last leg of the journey, but He must let us know this is our last chance to get it right and finish the work He has given us, thus, a stern warning replete with confirmations."

Now I cannot speak for you, but I know that feeling worn out will dampen my enthusiasm and cause me to fall into a funk. I believe the weariness of living and walking through demon soup every day, has taken the enthusiasm out of life for many of us, and being weak, I just want to crawl into a warm, cozy bed somewhere and pull the covers up over my head, go to sleep and wake up when the rapture happens. But I have been fighting that impulse every day. It is not my will or my desire, it is the exit route for exhaustion. And I, with all my heart, do not want that. God forbid.

So knowing my heart, I believe the Lord may have sent a message from my Mother to wake me up, saying, get up! You can't stay here! Get up! He's coming! This is the final hour! Certainly, that message did have that effect on me. So, if that is true then there is yet a small space of hope for us to do more for the Lord, even those assignments dear to our hearts.

In truth, I have told the Lord, that if He doesn't change something, giving me back some kind of youthful strength, I just don't have anything left. But last night I felt something different, I felt a spark at the piano that I hadn't felt for a long time. When I awoke this morning, I began to feel a desire to get up and start walking again.

No doubt my friendly Satanists will pick up on this and try to squash it, but I must remind them, for mercy's sake, it is written that whoever curses us,

God will curse, and I pray for your conversion, but I cannot rescind the word of God that whatever you wish upon me will happen to you. It is not that I send it back to you, that is not my heart. It is that this is a law God has enacted and you cursing me is going to cause His curse to fall upon you. Please don't take my word for it, just observe the repercussions of the curses you send out. For instance, 20 years ago when we were here a certain witch cursed my son's horse and it died while my son had an open door. But the next week the witch's favorite horse was found mutilated in a field. What you send out will come back to you.

As Satanists you know what a covenant is, and that it carries weight. Our covenant is with God and His rules apply to us, and if we live within His boundaries, His covenant is binding, which means His protection is binding as well. That is why I ask you to consider the consequences of cursing us, because I do not want to see you getting hurt. I pray that you will wake up and see all the fun you could have serving God, a God who truly loves you, rather than a god that is only using you and when he's done, he will torment you for eternity. And when I say rather than a god that is only using you, that is a small "g" not a big "G".

Genesis 12:31

"I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

I am from the seed of Abraham both by faith and by Jewish lineage through my Mother. Therefore, this law applies. And there are so many others who are also of this estate, though it has been hidden from most because of persecution. So, children grow up thinking that they are Catholic because the Jews disappeared into the Catholic Church to escape persecution. Here in New Mexico, there are thousands of cipher Jews that came over from Spain. So, this protection from God applies to them as well.

I am reminded of the story of a high priest Satanist in Brooklyn who met nightly with Satan to discuss the curses for his neighborhoods. John Ramirez finally asked Satan to give him some time off. He was getting really tired. So, Satan made him blind for an entire year. That's the kind of boss you're dealing with. When I am tired Jesus either gives me substantial strength or tells me to go lay down and take a nap. Then He shows me how important my work is to Him and my heart wants to rally and get up and keep going. Do you see the difference?

It is an unfortunate thing to hold onto anger, bitterness and hatred which often drives people into satanism because they are abused by relatives or indoctrinated at such a young age, they don't know how to get out of it. But this opens the door for demons to direct your life right down into a deeper pit. Whereas, when you forgive and go to God, he leads you in His ways which leads to the glories of Heaven and a tender love for you.

Dear Family, neither Jesus, nor you or I, know when the Rapture will be called, so please do your best now, knowing that tomorrow could be your last opportunity on earth to do good before you are taken, or left behind.

Jesus have you anything to add.

He began, "You have spoken well Clare, yet I must warn you that it is a little more urgent than that. As I told you, this time is not a drill. Truly we are on the brink. I do not want to shoot your hope down that you will not be able to work more on music, but these days, the condition of the world, is far more serious than it was five years ago. This is the brink and it could go either way. Please pray, please keep up your prayers. Please do not slack off. Please put your heart and passion into your prayers. There is yet a chance, but the door is closing. Therefore, keep watch, pray, offer sacrifices and be ready on a daily basis. Remember, I told you, I am with you, grab a firm hold of my hand and don't stray from your awareness of Me from moment to moment. And do not forget your duties Beloved ones, continue on so that I may find you working when I come for you." And that was the end of His message.

Well, I want to say something here and that is that I have read and re-read this message several times, along with another senior member of the community, and I have to say that in the past, when the Lord gave me a Rapture warning, there was a deep, inner sense that He was going to answer prayers for more time, more grace and more mercy. I did not get this impression this time. In fact, I felt like I was literally hanging in midair at the end of this message, and no solid sense that there would be a postponing this time. In times past I did have that sense. But not this time. That's all I can share with you my dear ones, perhaps you have further insights. He is however asking for prayer, serious prayer, so let's get back on our knees. I love you all very dearly, even and especially our enemies, and I hope someday we meet in Heaven.
